“ Aunt Charlene walked this earth for almost Nine Decades, successfully raising two daughters after the unexpected and tragic loss of her husband Clyde many, many years ago. As the oldest of the four Isbell girls Aunt Charlene was a "Mom" in many respects long before marrying Clyde and giving birth to Sherry and Shawn as she helped raise her sister Shirley and to a lesser extent her sisters Margie and Billie. These early experiences, combined with being raised on the proverbial "wrong side of the tracks" molded Aunt Charlene into who she was all her life: strong willed, vociferous, uniquely individual and a loving Mother, Grandmother, Sister and Aunt. Her eighty-eight years, seven months and twenty-four days on this earth affected many people and she will not soon be forgotten.
