“ To the Loved Ones of Uncle Charles, I would like to say how blessed you were. My memories of Uncle Charles were that he had a tender heart made of gold, a forgiving and sharing spirit, an infectious laugh, and a genuine twinkle in his eye. He was always ready to share his latest jokes with Mom and she looked so forward to their telephone time in her last years. He was a source of joy and pride to her and she loved him dearly. I also know he loved the Lord and he is dwelling with Him now. With prayers for your peace at this time,
Sue
