“ He was a wonderful father-in-law to me . He always made sure that me & Mark had everything we needed. I was only with him for a short while being a daughter-in-law I thought of him as my other dad. He was always a happy person. Charles loved his boys dearly. He would always make sure me and little mark were taken care of. That's just the kind of man he was. I didn't see much of him the last years because it was to painful to see him.It was a reminder of what I had and+ lost. I would ask Mark about him everytime I talked to him. He had a saying when they made me they broke the mold. That's so true.
