“ The theme is suited best Kubrick theme, heovver it should work well with any other theme as well, because actually WPJobBoard currently does not have a theme, it's rather set of template files that structure the layout and inherit design from the current WordPress theme.

“ *We are really going to miss all the fatherly advise he has given to us over the years (face to face) as well as over the internet. He was an adevocate for our music and we will just miss his sense of humor.
Take care Chuck and we will see you again.*

“ Chuck and I were the best of friends. We shared and agreed on everything. He was a fine man with the best of values, and our world will be the lesser for his passing. I miss him terribly.

“ I enjoyed the many conversations we had. Our mutual love and respect we had for our dogs was quite a conversation piece. I knew you were a good man because of the manner in which you treated animals. I'm very sorry to hear of your passing, but I know you are in a better place. We shall meet again, some day ... I'll look forward to seeing our pets there too. Perhaps then we can have a "Scotty's Group" reunion. I sent you an email telling you that we are getting a Golden Retriever. Many happy days are in store. Rest in peace, my friend. See you again...

“ Chuck we will all miss you but will remember the many discussions we shared together. Go and be with our other fallen warriors. Prepare a place for us as we shall not be far behind and will look forward to getting together again for a nice cold one and some great sea stories.

“ In Heaven there are only round engines, takeoffs do not have to equal landings, you don't need a chute, it's always CAVU, and the bar is free. Hopefully, we will meet one day, take our dogs for a walk and I'll buy the first round. Take care of our Goldens and Newfies until we get up there. God Bless!
