

Charles Wooldridge

January 19, 1929 - November 4, 2007

Charlie Wooldridge slipped quietly away late Sunday night with grace and dignity. He was a man who loved nature, books, dogs, kids, family, golf and most of all his wife of 34 years, Carolyn. He believed in honesty, fairness, equality and that the glass was always half full. He laughed much and truly enjoyed the company of others. He treated everyone with respect and kindness bringing out the best in all those he met. Never one to raise his voice, he was a wonderful father and husband who will forever be missed and cherished. He is survived by his wife, Carolyn; daughter, Suzanne Wooldridge; step children Bill Anderson, Mike Anderson, Carol and Cliff Webb, Bob and Davida Anderson; and grandchildren C.R. and Cody Webb, Cheri and Alanna Anderson, along with many cousins and close friends. In lieu of sending flowers the family asks that you make a donation to your favorite charity. There will be a celebration of life held at a later date. Arrangements are under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, Tyler, Texas. For more information or to express condolences visit www.stewartfamilyfuneral.com. Thanks Charlie -- it was a whole lot of fun. We're lucky to have known you and you'll be remembered always with a smile.
