“ Chris...wow this is hard for me. I never thought I would see this day, but yet it has come. I have to focus on the positive and good times we shared. You were such a nut and always knew how to make me laugh, even when I was having a bad day. Conversations with you were always great because of your level of intellect. I remember the great passion you had with your dream of rapping..the many trips to the studio. Blood, sweat, and tears was your motto and you lived by that. I am forever grateful for the chance I had to really get to know you. Rest in Peace and give Mom(yours and mine)a big hug and kiss for me. To Nikki, and the Youman family, keep the faith and continue to look to God. He has never failed us yet. Though this burden is hard to bear right now, know that he will never put more on us than we can handle.

“ *A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says...*

*"Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue the traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about the falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again."*

Wow, Chris, Brother I will always remember the times that we all shared growing up in Summerfield. Everything from chasing cows, to shooting at each other with our BB guns, singing at church, playing ball and even our Star Trek Club; when we were going to dig a tunnel through Summerfield so we could hold our secret meetings. As we all reflect, we know that those were the best times of our lives. You made a tremendous impact on everyone that you met and your sincerity and ability to connect with people will last long after your passing, through all of your family and friends. Just know, my brother, you will always be loved and cherished.

“ Uncle Chris,

This has been one of the hardest things for me to get through. However, I know that God had a plan for your life that was more than we could ever wrap our minds around. Thank you for believing in my talents and pushing me to pursue dreams. You taught me to never be "afraid to dream." You believed in me when I didn't even believe in myself. As much as we would love to keep you here on earth, I must say, heaven is FAR better than this place of pain and suffering. I thank God that He captured your heart before it was too late, and I know that He is taking care of you. Kiss Bigmama for me, and know that my love for you will never fade away, not even in death.

*Love,
BB*

“ Psalm 23

1The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

To the Family: You have my most deepest sympathy.

“ Chris, one of my childhood friends, cousin. I will always cherish the memories of us fishing, playing basketball, playing football at St. John, riding the school bus. I will always remember one of your favorite actors was the "Duke" John Wayne. My prayer today is that God will give your soul a resting place, somewhere in his Kingdom, where you will be able to praise his name forever. Amen
