“ Cindy was a dear friend and I enjoyed our talks. She was always kind to everyone and would do anything to help others. She exhibited the caring and attitude that a true Registered Nurse should be and did this without a thought of her needs. She never let her health issues keep her from her work. I will miss our talks and my prayers go out to her family. She was very proud of all her family. She has now joined her parents, whom she missed so much, and is smiling down on all of us from above. God Bless You All.

Sadly, I was unable to attend the services due to my work schedule.

“ We are all poorer with the loss of our dear friend.

I will always cherish the memory of the many adventures and good times Cindy and I shared during junior and senior high school. Lunches at Taco Via, horseback riding in Palo Duro Canyon, sleepovers, the New Mexico trip with Debe, weekend driving around Hunley Hills. Cindy was a bridesmaid at my wedding; I played the organ for hers.

Time and miles finally separated us. We didn't write or call very often any more. But when we did, we always picked up where we'd left off.

Cindy's family and friends are in my prayers.

“ Cindy was a very loving and giving person. She also was kind and always liked to treat her co workers to pizza. Although she had her own problems, she never hesitated to help those of us with our small crises.

“ My heart goes out to Cindy's family and friends. I know that it is hard dealing with loss. There is a flood of memories and emotions, and sometimes it can feel overwhelming. Be strong, support each other and celebrate that you all had the chance to know Cindy and be affected by her. Whether affected by Cindy significantly or minimally she had a hand in the clay that molded you into who you are today.

“ I worked at High Plains Baptist Hospital now BSA the same time Cindy did back in the late 80's. She and I picked at each other all the time because she was a Texas Longhorn fan and I was an Aggie. It was all in good fun. One time Cindy made a bet with me that A&M couldn't beat LSU, she said the loser buys the winner a hotdog. I took the bet thanking my Aggies wouldn't let me down...they did though. Cindy didn't say how she wanted her hotdog so I just got one out of the fridge (raw) and offered it to her like that. Actually I threw it at her. She picked that hotdog up and chased me down the hallway saying this is not a "HOTDOG"...this is a winnie!

We laughed at that everytime we talked through the years. She was a good friend and I always thought a lot of her. I'll miss her. Andy Dean “ Cindy & I worked together at the bank, many years ago, when Missy was a very little girl. I used to pick up Cindy & Missy, take Missy to Grandma Lacys's house, and then Cindy & I would go to work together. We always went on breaks and had lunch together. She was the funniest Lady that I knew at work, and I loved the time that we spent together. She spoke of her family so often, that I felt as if I knew all of you, yet we never met. Missy, my love, prayers & thoughts go out to you and your family. The memories you shared will remain in your heart forever, and keep Cindy close to you. God will hold you in the palm of his hand to give you comfort & peace.

Sincerely,

Debbie S Morris
