“ I knew Coy for a short time prior to his passing, and enjoyed our visits.

He seemed to enjoy talking about his time driving , and being a history buff I enjoyed listening. The Tyle he spoke of was as different as the prices in gas then and now.

I'm glad I had the pleasure and honor of spending what time I could with him.

“ Clyde, sorry we can not attend your dad's funeral but as you know we have obligations here that we could not change. We were sorry to hear about your dad but know he has been in poor health for a long time and is now resting peacefully.

We will see you and Ann as soon as we can. Hope to get to Tyler in the next couple of weeks.

We are thinking about you.

*Love,
Linda & Lyndon*

“ We did not know Mr. Carlisle, but are friends of Clyde and Ann Carlisle. Knowing Clyde, Mr. Carlisle must have been a gracious and courteous gentleman. We were saddened to learn of Mr. Carlisle's death, but we rejoice that he now is in the presence of God with a glorified body. He had a long, long life and was independent almost to the very end. Clyde and Ann visited him often, taking him clean clothes and home-cooked food. Clyde and Ann did this, we are sure, because of their love and respect for Mr. Carlisle.
