“ Curtis was a dear friend. Enjoyed him so much while he was at GABC. Played golf with him several times. Also fished with him. He loved the outdoors. And he caught a huge bass once while we were fishing at Lake Fork. Of course it was much larger when we got back to Tyler! He will be missed.

“ Brother Crofton was an amazing man, preacher. I was in junior high when I heard him preach. That tall, slender form, slicker back hair, hovering over that pulpit at University Park Baptist saying, "In the Greek..."- and I was forever moved. I became a pastor, in a different denomination, in large part because of Brother Crofton- and I studied Hebrew and Greek--and I say, "In the Greek..." as my personal tribute to an absolutely fine man. Over the years I've meant to find Bro. Crofton and reach out to him, and I'm very sorry that I didn't. He touched my life forever.

Pastor Crofton baptized me and I always remember how kind and compassionate he was. My sister, Valerie, and Andrea played together in our homes. Jeff and I were in the same SS class. I am praying for this family.

Dear Ann,

I 'm so sorry to see that Curtis has gone on ahead of you. God bless you in your sorrow. While I didn't really know him, I've always thought you seem so well loved: calm and definitely someone's prize. Praise God for these 40 odd years you had one another.

“ Curtis was such a dear friend. He preached at the revival services at Calvary Baptist Church in Rosenberg when I was pastor there. Later he helped me with retirement funds at the old Southern Baptist Annuity Board. Our retirement paths often crossed at Fresh in Tyler. A faithful servant, called of God to preach the Word, and now called Home by his Heavenly Father. Thanks, Curtis. Bill Ballou, Brandon, Mississippi

“ When I was a teenager Curtis came to our church, First Baptist of Dade City, FL as a summer youth ministry intern. As I sort of figure it, Curtis would have been my Daddy's (Hubert Pittman) first cousin and my second cousin.

What a testimony to be a pastor for many years and touch so many lives.

Curtis was a great pastor, preacher, and friend. He came to pastor Bethel Baptist Church in Houston during my first year of college. He shared his wisdom with me, for which I will be forever grateful. He was a great inspiration to me.
