“ Curtis was the most wonderful brother in law. He loved his family so much. I cant imagine not being able to pick up the phone and hear his voice. His death has left a giant whole in my heart. I will see you again one day my wonderful brother and birthing partner.(lol) I know you would be pleased. Your were one of the great ones. I will never forget your famous saying. "There are 2 kinds of people in this world. Rice's and people who want to be Rice's. Good-bye for now. I pray that Teresa,Nathan,Crystal,Stacey,Jamie,and Marcus will get through this awful time.I also pray that Mae is able to feel the comfort of the Lord and always know that Randy and I are here for here.

“Curtis was a great man and the best friend a person could ever hope for. I can recall many an afternoon either under the hood of a truck or in his boat with a beer in one hand and a fishing pole in the other. He was always there for a good laugh, a good cry, or to offer a helping hand. He loved unconditionally and was sure to let you know it. I will truly and deeply miss my buddy, but I will never forget him. I know he is fishing with God now, the best guide a man could have, and plenty of time to find us a new honey hole to cast into when I see him again!
