“ Cindy was one of the sweetest people my elderly mother and I knew. she brought us boston creme pies and pot roasts. We shared our love of amaryllis and lilies. She was so active in so many things, and brought light wherever she went. She will be missed.

“ I knew Cyndy at 1st Baptist, Tyler, and am saddened to hear of her passing. She was a gifted teacher and always gave us words of wisdom. I was surprised she wasn't a teacher by profession because she was so good at it. We were blessed! Sending my prayers and sympathy. Rogene LeNeveu
