“ This tribute to my friend Cindy is very late in coming, but nonetheless heartfelt. I had the pleasure of becoming friends with Cindy and Carl when we were in the Air Force together and new arrivals at Shaw Air Force Base. None of us knew anyone else there and our friendship grew into one of a lifetime. Cindy and Carl are my daughter's Godparents. We've lived very far apart for many years but when Cindy and I spoke or got together it was like we were still young and time didn't change that. We went to Cindy and Carl's hometown in Maryland with them and met their families. I didn't hear of Cindy's passing until Christmas when I called to let them know I was thinking of them. Carl told me he couldn't bear to call me and tell me of her passing. She and her family will always be in my heart and my prayers. The world lost a wonderful lady but God gained her.

“ I have known Cindy since we were teenagers. A few years later we became Sister-in-Laws. There are many memories of family, children, love, and loss. Many good times at the Kisamore farm in Flintstone, but her life was in Texas! Cindy had a loving and giving heart, was a hard worker, and was always there for those who needed her. She stood strong through some very rough times and now she is resting peacefully with loved ones who left before her. God bless your soul Cindy and know that I was very proud to call you Sister-in-Law and Friend! My Love to Carl, Chad, Chet, Becky, and the Grandkids.
