

Cynthia S. Simons

January 8, 1929 - March 19, 2013

A memorial service for Cynthia S. Simons, 84, of Tyler, will be held on Saturday, March 23, 2013, at 10:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Kem Oberholtzer officiating.

A private family burial will take place at Rose Hill Cemetery in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Simons passed away Tuesday, March 19, 2013 at The Hospice of East Texas.

She was born January 8, 1929 in Tyler to Ray A. and Lula D. Hunter Smith. Cynthia was a member of Marvin United Methodist Church. She was a lifelong resident of Tyler and graduated from Tyler High School and attended SMU where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and graduated from the University of Arkansas. She was a longtime member of the Tyler Junior Garden Club and the Junior League of Tyler. Mrs. Cynthia was a committed Christian and was an avid student of scripture as well as history. She loved her country and was a strong proponent of its conservative ideals. Her family and friends held a special place in her heart.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her husband of 39 years, Thomas Shirley Simons, Jr., a prominent architect and lifelong resident of Tyler.

She is survived by her loving family including daughters, Ann Simons of Dallas and Emily Hunter Simons Moon of Tyler; sister, Sara Smith Simons of Tyler; sister-in-law, JoAnn Simons of Tyler and many nieces and nephews. The family would also like to express their heartfelt gratitude to caregivers,

Yolanda Bircher, Shcrenna Bircher, Emma Gatewood, Angela Washington,
Melanie Dunn and Verda McCleveland.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to The Heritage Foundation, 214
Massachusetts Ave NE, Washington, DC 20002-4999.

“ Dear Emily and Ann - your mom was a dear, sweet person - although I had not seen her in many years, I remember her well from our days at Birdwell so long ago. She always had the kindest smile for everyone she encountered and I was honored to know her. My sincerest condolences to you both - she will be missed.
