“ *There is sadness for our earthly loss of a treasured and special friend! Danny was our John Tyler class encourager, our happy spirit, our "life of the party" personality but most importantly, that fun loving guy that loved us all! There are too many memories to list from our days in classes, our class reunions, the Barn get togethers at his Tyler home and even the visits to the salon where he attempted to make us all look good! Every memory brings a smile, a chuckle and a reason to feel so blessed to have such a friend. To this precious family and all the friends whose lives he touched, you should all feel peace in knowing that while we lost him on earth, he will certainly be our heavenly guardian angel! There is no question he was welcomed home by an army of special loving angels who have also gone before us! Until we meet again ... thanks for the memories Danny! Love and prayers! “ I don't have pictures, but I do have many great memories of Danny. He was a beautiful person inside and out. I don't think I ever saw Danny that he did not have that infectious ear to ear smile. His smile always makes everyone around him smile. He father 2 of the most beautiful children. I do not know Dustin other than childhood, but Destiny has her Dad's beautiful smile and his calm sweet personality. He will be missed. I know he and Bee are together with God. We will for sure see them again.

“ This is truly a sad day and my condolences go to the entire Butcher Family. I was fortunate enough to have known and grown up with the entire Butcher clan. Played ball and spent many hours playing every sport you can think of, Danny was a talented athlete and most importantly a great guy with a good heart!

“ Danny was the type of friend that if you hadn't seen or spoken to in a while , you just picked up where you left off the last time. One of the most positive persons I have ever met. He was a joy to be around and he made you a better person just because you knew him. Peace be with you Danny and the rest of your family. We will miss you my friend.

“ Danny, was probably the most animated person I ever met. HE lived life to the full and always had a smile or laugh to share. Great athletic ability and fun to play ball with. He made everyone's a little brighter.

Destiny and Dustin....Living across the road from, and becoming friends with Bill Durham, God knew that we'd have the pleasure of meeting Danny Butcher...and what a blessing that has been now for several years..Danny personified "LOVE" in his own sweet, gentle way, and J.R. and I will miss him greatly. Please know, that while we've not met either of you, our hearts are sharing your pain, hurting for your loss. and that our thoughts and prayers are with you all .

Sending prayers and loving thoughts to all the Butcher family. Danny, with his soft spoken voice, was always a such a great person. It is hard to believe that this young man that I met when he was just 16 years old has now joined his parents and siblings in Heaven. He was so loved by all of his family and I know they will all miss him. He was truly a special guy with a heart as big as Texas! May God be with all of you during your time of loss.

I will miss my Uncle Danny. I always loved going to my Grandma and Grandpa Butcher's house when I was little because I had three Uncles really close to my age. (Tommy, Kenneth, and Danny) Danny was the closest to my age, so we naturally had lots of fun together. I would call him often from up here in Wyoming and reminisce about some of our fun times. I remember when we are about 17 or 18 we went out to Connie Boston's folks' ranch and went "quail" hunting. We shot a bunch of Meadow larks thinking they were quail. But we had a good time and laughed it up large. I can't ever remember a time when he didn't have a smile and a good word to say.

I was home for Christmas and had every intention to visit him in Ft Worth, but when I called him he was gone with a friend. I never dreamed that would be the last time I talked to him in this life. The only thing that gives me joy in this sad time is that according to his own words, he knew the Lord Jesus and because of Jesus we will see each other again on Heaven's bright shore!

I will miss you Danny! Love you brother!

My thoughts and prayers go out to the Butcher family, I did not know Danny but for a very few hours and enjoyed those few hours with him. It saddens me of this tragic event and so hard to believe that Danny was taken so soon. Danny's friends old & new tried with all their heart to save Danny that day, Danny loved what he was doing and was truly at peace. The Lord had other plans for Danny & called him home last Saturday, it is hard for us to understand and we are not supposed to understand only have faith. It is us, his family & friends that suffer the loss of Danny on this earth. My sincere thoughts and prayers go out to the Butcher family that God will comfort you and bring peace, you will see Danny again someday in heaven.
