“ David was as sweet as they come...and a bit mischievous, which was one of the things I loved about him. I could always count on him to lovingly give me a hard time about the awful meals I used to make. I loved his quick wit when he sized up a trying situation. He was supportive as an uncle to Carson, always asking about his swimming and school. On many occasions, he gave up a chance to fish to be at a birthday party for a niece or nephew and everyone knows that David would have rather been fishing! Even when life wasn't fair, David was a class act, a true gentleman. He was loved by many for his kind nature and his strength when facing adversity.

David,
My prayer is that you are resting peacefully.
Much love,
Kellie

“ I am so sad about David's passing. His brother Plez played little league with my brother Bill Hays so of course I had the pleasure of babysitting him and Kay when they were about 4 years old. I will never forget how mischievous he was. I said it was time for a bath and David ran outside and of course Kay followed and I had to chase them all around the yard and he was even running up the street. When I finally caught "them", and got them inside, Bruce said, DeeDee, just whip the tarrrr out of em, just whip the tarr out of them." I kept telling Bruce, I don't think I can do that. Then I was told by Rita before they left I had to sit on one of those kid chairs at the doorway until they went to sleep and oh my was David a challenge. Of course when his parents came home, I remember how sweet Rita was, she asked " How were they, were they any trouble", and I realize now she probably wouldn't be surprised if I said they were awful, but I said " Oh they were great I didn't have any problems at all". I was so afraid Bruce was going to say " No they weren't I told her she could whip the tar out of them."

Well, from what I understand, David turned out to be an outstanding man.

I just pray I will realize to embrace every day I am given.

May the Lord be with you David and comfort all your family. Love

“ David was truly one of the nicest people I've ever spent time with. He always took time to talk whenever our paths crossed and wanted to hear about my family and share about his. He was my quarterback for six seasons. He was a true friend.

“ I haven't seen David in over 20 years. The last time I ran into him, he had that same friendly smile and eyes that lit up when he saw you. He had a way of making you feel important and special. One of the kindest boys I knew from my school days. May your family find peace during this time. My family will be praying for you all. God bless--
