“ I'll never forget several things:
- How she gave such wonderful testimonies, in church
- How she would hit the aisle dancing, in the Spirit, at church
- How, when I was at a very low point, she stopped and talked to ask questions and show her love to me. It meant a LOT, to my heart.
I'm so disturbed by her leaving us too soon!
And, I know that the Lord and the Father are weeping along with us; they feel our pain.
Praise God for JESUS; for HOPE; for PEACE in this blinding, fierce storm.
We know we will see her worshipping God, again! 🙏💔

“ Mike and family, We love you and our prayers are with you. We will never forget your labor of love in the Houston church and Mike thanks so much for being a friend to Greg when he first came to live with us. Heather was just a little girl then but you became her first boyfriend, so cute. Your Debra was precious! We will miss her also.
