“ We are so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Losing someone from this earthly life leaves a void that no one else can fill. The joys you shared together will always be your cherished memories. Remember all the good times you had together as a loving family. These will be treasures in the future. Rita, we just heard about your great loss and wanted you to know that we are thinking about you and are saddened by the loss of your dear husband.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to Dennis's family. Dennis worked for my husband, John, and was his go-to man. John considered him a good friend and dependable man. So sorry I can't make the service. Regards, Bettie Miller

“ I was in the same class as my 2nd cousin Dennis - all the way thru the Brownsboro Schools. My uncle was Dennis's granddad, Bonny Hatton.
His mom Cleo was my 1st cousin. Dennis was a good BHS Band member and he & I were in the clarinet section. Squeak, squeak ! Dennis was a good head taller than all the other boys, naturally a good basketball player. I hate it that these occasions have replaced our class reunion get-togethers. Rest in Peace my good brother. We will see you soon. Phillip Hatton
