“ Dear Laverne,
We are so sorry for your loss. Daddy wanted to be there so badly. He can't leave mother alone for long lengths of time and she is not able to travel much anymore. Please know we are praying for you all. Our thoughts are with each of you. Judy

“ I did not know Don well but I know he lived his Christian faith. He lived next door to my brother and sister-in-law and was a angel to them these past few years. He was always glad to help by brother and sister-in-law when they had a problem. I know he will be missed my many friends and his family. May God give peace to each of you.

“ Mr. Cooper,
I never met you, but I work with your daughter, Dedran. I just want you to know I think you must have been an incredible Dad and you raised Dedran right. She is loving, caring, sincere and a hard worker. She spoke of you often and of her love for you. Thank you for leaving a wonderful legacy with such a strong woman. You will be deeply missed but your memory is strong. Be proud.
