I love that Aunt Dot always was smiling and cheerful. Full of the love of God. The photo tribute was just beautiful. I especially liked the photo of her true "Ziegler" 39th forever birthday!! Sending my love to all of you.

“ Every summer, when I was a kid, I looked forward to aunt Dot, uncle Jim, with cousins Donna, Deb and Janet coming up from Texas. This photo from 1963 may convey that excitement and family. Dorothy is standing behind the wild-eyed eight-year-old (me) swinging his badminton racket like a baseball bat.

“ I met Dot when I was 16 and my family had just moved to Tyler. She was such a gracious and loving person from day one and had a way of making people feel comfortable when they were around her. I enjoyed being on the church cookbook committee with her a few years later and that was fun :). For me, Dot was an example of a Godly woman who lived with joy and grace. I am so glad for the chance to have known her and I know she is rejoicing in heaven with Jim!

“ Aunt Dot and Uncle Jim were my Godparents. They never stopped taking that role seriously - always there to listen and share - a birthday card every year without fail.

Dot had a rock-solid faith in God. No one could ever doubt that. She talked often about blessings. I feel very blessed to have had her in my life.

Janet, Debbie and Donna thanks for sharing these great photos. I think they portray her spirit as well as any pictures could.
