“ Donna, I remember going to your house. Beth was just a little thing, but walking and talking with an advanced vocabulary. It seems like your mom was in the kitchen every time I was there. One time they were getting ready for friends to come over around Valentines Day. Your dad was arranging dominoes in heart shapes on tables in that big room. They both always had a smile and made me feel welcome. What a blessing they have been to so many. Praying for you my sweet friend.

Dot was a busy lady! I can remember that she spent hours in preparations for her Bible class of little ones—for years! Countless times she and Dale hosted meals and parties for many. Personally, my family enjoyed many Thanksgiving celebrations with yours. Great memories!

Besides their hospitality, I can remember their hospital visits and other facets of the Lord's work they eagerly performed.

They blessed many lives during their sojourn here on earth.

I loved her. RIP, dear Dot.

What a special place she holds in our family's hearts! Whitney still talks about her 4 yr old Christmas party at her house. You are blessed indeed if a small child has a good memory of you to hold in their heart! She has been missed. Rest in peace, sweet Dot. ❤️
