

Dorothy Wilda

December 22, 1922 - March 20, 2015

Dorothy Marcine Wilda 92, passed away on March 20 2015 in Tyler, Texas. Born in Wildhorse, Oklahoma on December 22, 1922 she was the last surviving child of the late Charles George Cannady and Flossie Marie Chanslor.

Marcine Wilda worked in many different jobs through her career. She worked at Corner Pharmacy, Bernard's Clothing for many years and traveled to Dallas as a buyer for the next years clothing line. She was also a Real-estate Agent.

In the earlier years she taught at Darr School in Ponca City and had the nickname of Rosie the Riviter. She was Air Force trained airplane mechanic during WW2. She was also a Member of ABWA for many years.

She was preceded in death by her husband Wesley Wilda; parents Charles George Cannady, Flossie Marie Chanslor and stepfather James Chanslor; siblings Robert (Bob) Cannady, Helen Charlene Stravins and Zane Lee Cannady.

She is survived by her children; Delores Liberton and husband Kenneth of Tyler, Texas and son Doug Wilda and wife Claire of Austin, Texas. Also by her grandchildren John Liberton and Darren Liberton as well as her great grandchildren Lindsey Liberton and John Paul Liberton, and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to St. Jude Childrens Research Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis TN 38105.

A service will be announced at a later date. Arrangements are with Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Jean Anne Scott - March 25, 2015 at 11:35 PM

JS

Delores and Doug we are so sorry to hear about your mother. Please contact me when the services will be our family would like to be there. Jonnie was part of our family a long time. Will you bring her home to bury her next to your dad! My email is jscott1319@gmail.com I was just in shock when I saw it in the paper.

Jean Anne Scott - March 25, 2015 at 11:41 PM