“ It will be hard to walk through the doors of Grace Baptist Church without thinking of our beloved Bro. Birdsong. He was always there to open the door for you with a kind word and a smile. He was such a faithful member of our church. He served the Lord with gladness each time he was needed to open the church to service men during the week, coming early to turn on the lights and make the temperature comfortable before services, taking and counting the tithes and offerings, bringing banana pudding and pies on Wednesday night for our after bible study supper, setting out tables and chairs in the auditorium and so many other ways he served. Bro. Birdsong was the one you could count on to just always always there. We will miss him greatly! Our hearts are mourning but our spirits are light as we know he is in heaven today seeing our savior Jesus Christ face to face and beholding his glory.
