“ Our family is praying for you and wish to express our condolences.

I was glad I could spend time with you and Wayne at his 30 year anniversary dinner. I know he was proud of that moment, and I also know the effort it required of both of you to attend.

Wayne was a good person, and a pleasure to work with. Aviall as a company is built upon the foundation of people such as Wayne. Aviall as a family mourns their loss.

“ Wayne was a pleasure to work with. He was always in a good mood, friendly, and calm headed no matter what the current work crisis was.

Rest in peace Wayne.

“ I started at Aviall in 2000 and officed just around the corner from Wayne. During the five years that we shared at Aviall, I had a few occasions to work directly with Wayne. Wayne was a very kind and gentle person, with rarely a disparaging comment and always a positive demeanor. Even when he was first diagnosed with cancer, he handled the situation with a brave face and a determined spirit. Wayne set a terrific example for others to follow. He has been, and will forever be missed.

“ Wayne was a team player, about as selfless as anyone could be. Off the field, he was a combination of self-confidence and humility, never cavalier. In adulthood, it was rare when I saw Wayne, but he remained the same, treating all with dignity. The loss of such a fine man is difficult to weigh, but may God's Grace be with all of you in the coming days...
Sincerely,

“ Peggy,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I was glad to have seen Wayne and you when I did, and sorry we didn't get together again.

My memories of Wayne were that of an all around good guy.

He has left his earthly home now, but enjoying his new life in heaven. You can be assured of that.

“ Dear Peggy, I'm so very sorry for your loss of Wayne, your High School sweetheart and long time friend and spouse. I remember Wayne as a kind and polite person during our school days at JT. This must come as a real hurt for you to bare this short after loosing your Dad, whom I dearly loved and respected. I'm glad I got to give Mr. Tomlinson a big hug at our last reunion. Again, my sympathy and may prayers go out for you, your son and your Mother for this great lose. God be with you. Don Mullican

“ What a battle Wayne put up with the dreaded cancer foe. This awful disease only seems to take the best of the best.

Our thoughts go out to Peggy and the rest of the McCaslin family on the loss of such a fine husband, brother, father, son, and friend. He will certainly be missed by all who knew and loved him. We love you all and share that hole in our hearts that Wayne used to fill.
