“ To my Aunt Sue and my cousins, Cindy, Darlene, Amy and their husbands and children. We were so very sorry to hear about Uncle Wayne and especially sorry that we could not be there with you in your time of sorrow. May you keep all of the love and laughter that you shared throughout the years close to your heart so that they may strengthen you and you are able to celebrate his life that he shared with all of you, and most of all, keep a smile on your faces!!...I must agree with Gina, what a great time he must be having with all of our loved ones up there in heaven where life truly is everlasting!!

“ With deepest sympathy to Wayne's family. Do know that you are in my thoughts and prayers to the Lord our God. Being a very kind and thoughtful man, he was a dear friend and mentor to me in my youth. From the context of our visits of many years ago, I know that he loved his family very much.

May the Lord bless you all.
