

Eddie Morris Lewis

January 25, 1945 - January 7, 2024

Eddie Lewis passed in peace on Sunday morning, January 7, 2024. Mr. Lewis is survived by his loving wife of 29 years, Charlene and his daughter, Lori Ann Kimber and her husband, Todd Kimber. He was also the proud grandfather to Beau Daniel Kimber, all of Amarillo, Texas.

A veteran of the Vietnam War, Eddie served as a bombardier and radar operator. He grew up in Ralls, Texas and as a child loved to pretend he was a cowboy. Later, as a young man, Eddie was able to live his dream when he became a ranch hand and even rode bulls in the rodeo.

Eddie enjoyed visiting new places and exploring cities throughout the United States. He was especially passionate about the West. His profession as a truck driver allowed him to meet all sorts of people and see the beauty of the country that he loved. His favorite state was Arizona, and he and his wife, Charlene felt lucky enough to call it home for over 5 years.

He and his stories will be missed by all who knew him and heard him recount a tale (whether it was “tall” or true!).

Eddie is preceded by his parents, Dewey and Dorothy Lewis of Amarillo, his sister, Lavera Ann Killingsworth of Shamrock, Texas as well as his beloved brother, Darrell Eugene Lewis.

Memorial services for Eddie will be held on Monday, January 15, 2024, at 1:00 p.m. at Grace Baptist Church in Tyler.
