“ I was fortunate to have known Elihu for a number of years in association with Elihu's involvement with the local Democratic Party and with Elihu's faithful attendance at the regular Peace Vigil on Fridays at the Tyler downtown square. Elihu was well informed about current events and had a deep concern for those who suffered the ravages of war. That was a subject he knew well because he experienced the terrible winter of 1944 in the Battle of the Bulge where he was captured and became a POW. Elihu was well informed in many fields and had a great command of details. He could carry on discussions on many subjects. We often exchanged communication on the internet. Elihu was a good friend and I'm certain that many people will miss him as will I. His positive attitude will leave an empty place for all who knew him. May his family be comforted by the knowledge of Elihu's contribution to several generations. Judson Malone

I have a print he made, in my office; it says "Miracles are natural." I think of him often, and will continue to do so, with love. Jackie Daves

Remembering a brilliant man, way ahead of his time and trapped in Jax when he needed to be in Ca. Hey JOEY. I loved BOTH SIDES NOW and his ethics gave me the desire to publish a slew of magazines as well as being the ghost writer for many famous people! Andrew Earl Singer, Worldwide Talent Magazine et al
