

Elizabeth Manning

April 25, 1944 - October 27, 2013

Services for Elizabeth Manning, 69 of Tyler, will be held on Wednesday, October 30, 2013, at 2:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Melvin Wood and Rev. Jim Copeland officiating.

A private burial will be held in Jacksonville under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Manning passed away Sunday, October 27, 2013 under the care of Hospice of East Texas. She was born April 25, 1944 in Houston to Jim Leroy and Cleo Carpenter.

Elizabeth was a loving, giving, and compassionate woman. Proverbs 31 well describes her in many ways, "...She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue...Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring praise at the city gate."

Elizabeth loved. The biggest and most important thing about her is that she loved people. Thanksgiving and Christmas always had extra place settings at the table for other's whose family's lived too far away and or for those who had no family...she was their family. She was a woman of God who prayed faithfully for others, with such loyalty and dedication that several people have asked "Who is going to pray for me now?"

Elizabeth was a wife for over 51 years, a mother and nana. She was our biggest cheerleader and wonderful role model. She loved to read, watch old English movies, and from time to time you might find her coloring in her favorite coloring book. To sum it up, she loved BIG!

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her loving family including her husband Glenn Manning of Tyler; daughter, Misty Hopper of Tulsa, OK; and grandson Zachary Hopper.

“ I mourn the loss of a special lady who probably had no idea the influence she had on my life, or how she helped to shape the person I am today. I am grateful to have had the privilege of knowing her. While we are sad today, Liz is not. She is celebrating because she is with Jesus today, and that is comforting.

“ I met Liz through our church. She taught me so much about how to walk with the Lord and became a faithful - treasured - forever - friend. Through so many years she cheered me on, encouraging me to walk with Jesus and enjoy being a wife and mom. I miss her wonderful laugh already! Liz was faithful to love and faithful to pray and as such she leaves a beautiful legacy. It was a great treasure to know Liz on this earth and I look forward to the day when we will meet again in the presence of the Lord.

Liz's little feet left deep prints on many hearts. I am so thankful mine was one of them.

“ I remember a bunch about Miss Liz. But there are a few great Times I remember most. I remember hanging out at Miss Liz and Mr Glenn's house with Elmer Barns (Jeff Merell) in the pool and listening to them all tell jokes and eating ice cream. I also remember one day I was there with Mom and Dad having dinner and fellowship, I was (of course) picking my nose, and Miss Liz saw me and showed me her missing finger and said that the booger monsters would bite off my finger if I did not stop LOL. I stopped for a while. Most of all I remember how wonderful Miss Liz was to both Austin and Myself. This Wonderful woman made one of the biggest impacts in my life. My only regret was not paying the love back to her enough throughout the years, so I will do my best to pay it forward. Misty and Glenn, I love you both and will always be here for you as much as I can be. And Miss Liz will always be looking in on us. I love you all. We will miss you Miss Liz.

“ Liz was my best friend for 40 years, as well as my prayer partner. We always talked of keeping a "Praise Journal" to record the many wonderful answers to prayer we had as we prayed for many people. I wish we had followed through on that one, but she was a wonderful, trusted friend to me, and O's--as she called him--intercessor and prophetess. We loved her deeply and will miss her more than I can say.

Bless you Glenn and Misty and Zach, C.R. & Betty
