“ Pastor Dunks got it right when he described Gene Goodman as a gentleman and a gentle man! I was witness to his kindness, generosity, and habit of putting others before himself. In recent years, he would call to check on my mom, his long time across-the-street neighbor, and greet her with the words, "Hey kid!" As one 90 year old to another, he could say that and make her smile.

He was a man devoted to his wife, family, friends, and God! How we will miss him until the day we see him again in heaven! We are grateful to have had the privilege of crossing life paths with Gene.
