“ His picture says it all. A happy and caring person and a joy to be around.. I am sadden at his passing but treasure the time we did have together. We were all blessed to have this man in our life and he lives on in our hearts. As our family gets smaller our bonds get stronger. We mourn his death but we should celebrate his life. Linda, may peace be with you and your family. Until we meet again.....

“ We have been most fortunate to become reacquainted with Emmett through Dogface Charlie reunions. He was a great leader who I admired and respected both in the Army and civilian life. It was a privilege to share a foxhole with him. It has been an honor to call him and his beautiful wife Linda "friends." Your memory shall endure with all of us. Rest in Peace dear Emmett.
