

Eugene LeRoy Jeffers

April 17, 1926 - April 23, 2016

Graveside services for Eugene LeRoy Jeffers, 90, of Houston Texas, will be held on Wednesday, April 27, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at Cathedral in the Pines in Tyler, Texas, with the Reverend Scott Mackey officiating.

Burial will follow under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mr. Jeffers passed away Saturday, April 23, 2016 at Treemont Health Care Center in Houston, Texas.

He was born April 17, 1926 in Putnam, Texas to Robert Goodloe Jeffers and Stella Agnes Jeffers. Raised in Dallas, he married Mary Jean Randolph in 1950. He and his family moved to Tyler in 1961 where he lived until relocating to Houston last year.

Gene joined the US Navy in 1944 and served as an aviation radioman and gunner on an SB2C dive bomber based on the aircraft carrier USS Franklin Delano Roosevelt. He graduated from Southern Methodist University, and was a founding partner of Arms, Jeffers & Co., now Arms, Shilling & Pye, P.C. He was President of the East Texas Chapter of C.P.A.'s from 1981-1982, and an elder in Highland Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his loving family including his wife Jean; his sons Robert and Donald and daughters-in-law Cheryl and Susan; and his grandchildren, Katie and Dave.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Heart Association, P O Box 841125, Dallas, TX 75284-1125.

“ Gene's quick and practical mind and servant's heart made his leadership on the Session of Highland Presbyterian Church indispensable during the two times in the 1990s when I served as interim pastor there. He was a treasure beyond compare.
