

Eva Frances Clepper

October 21, 1926 - October 3, 2020

Eva, the baby of her family of eight brothers and sisters, was born October 21, 1926. Eva was preceded in death by her husband, Carlous Carlton Clepper; her brothers and sisters; father and mother, Harry and Evie Williamson; and her youngest son, Alan.

Eva, a loving, devoted wife and mother of four children lived most of her life in Tyler, Texas. Family will say that she must have had “gypsy blood” moving from one place to another over her lifetime, including Hooks, Ft. Worth and Houston, but most of the moves were in the Tyler area. She had a heart for God and never complained about life this side of Heaven. In her last days, she was heard humming, “The Old Rugged Cross.” Her passions included playing a game of 42 or 88 with friends, taking in estate sales with family and friends, and sewing quilts for family members.

Survivors include two sons, Wayne and his wife Sherry; Steve and his wife Kathy; one daughter, Nancy and her husband Larry; 5 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great granddaughter.

Family and friends will gather to celebrate Eva’s life, October 8th at Stewart Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Hwy, Tyler, Texas with visitation in the Chapel at 1:00 p.m. and services at 2:00 p.m.

Family will gather for Eva's interment October 9th at Chapelwood Memorial Gardens, 826 N. Kings Hwy, Wake Village, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Providence Hospice, 6700 Sanger Ave, Waco Texas, 76710.

“ Mom we will miss you forever! You were a huge light in our lives. Steve and I miss our visits sitting and chatting with you for all these years! Now there is a huge gaping hole there where you used to be! We know you are with Jesus and Carlous and Alan and all your family who went on ahead of you. Now you will have a eternity of family reunions! We love and miss you very much! Your son Steven and Kathy and family. ❤️ eyes that see the best in people,

A heart that forgives
the worst,
A mind that forgets
the bad,
And a soul that never loses faith.
