“ I never met Mrs. Hill but I have heard the wonderful stories of and about her from her Loving Grandson Kyle. The tales of her presistance and dedication to her family and friends is truly inspiring. I have known Klye for several years and I know his dedication and conviction to family and friends comes from Faye. Kyle spoke often about the times spent together and how much his Family meant to him especially his Grandma. Thank you Faye for all that you where to your family and friends and thank you for all that you gave. These gifts will continue to give and reflect your legecy in this world that you made better by being here.

“ Dear Kyle,
I was sorry to read about your grandmother. I can't remember ever meeting her but I may have during our younger years. I guess we went to school from 1st to 12 th grade together. I have often wondered where you moved and what you have been doing all these years. I have been back in Tyler for almost 13 years. Before then I lived in Dallas for 10 years and in Philadelphia for 4 years. Please write me and keep in touch! Again I am sorry for you and your families loss. Lydia

“ We are so very sorry about the loss of Faye. She was truly an elegant lady. I always admired her graceful manner.

Faye was my father's cousin (Samuel Eben Garrard). Mule and Faye were very dear to both my father and mother (Hedwig or Hattie as she was better known). Daddy always said so many wonderful things about them. We have such treasured memories of these times.

What a reunion in heaven they are having now. I can imagine the wonderful times they are again sharing.

Faye was greatly loved by my parents, me, and my sisters.

May God be with you always.
