“ Dear Family, I was so sorry to hear of Elaine's death just this week. I was her ninth grade PE teacher at Roberts Jr. High in Tyler. She was such a sweet and congenial young lady and always gave 100% despite her physical handicap. I have fond memories of our relationship. Love and prayers to you all, Pat Hudson Harris.

“ The weather has prevented us from being with you dear friends today. Our hearts are heavy for the loss we've all experienced this week. Lainey was a dear friend. We have lots of memories from days in Snyder. She was a joy and inspiration to all of us. May you feel God's arms of comfort and peace surrounding you all today. You are in our thoughts and prayers. “ Deepest condolences to the family. I worked beside Leslie for many years in the service to others. I know all your hearts must be heavy at this difficult time. However trust in the Lord that one day, He will bring us all I to his glorious kingdom, where there will be no pain, no hurt or sorrow. Just the light of eternal life in the presence of our loved ones for ever. Andy & Rachel Longo
