

Frances Thedford Warnell

April 29, 1924 - June 10, 2014

Memorial services for Frances Thedford Warnell, 90, a lifelong resident of Smith County, will be held on Tuesday, June 17, 2014 at 2:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Dr. Dan Hoke officiating.

Mrs. Warnell passed away Tuesday, June 10, 2014 at The Hospice of East Texas.

She was born April 29, 1924 in Tyler to R. W. "Samp" and Birdie Thedford. Frances was a graduate of Tyler High School and Texas College. She was a strong advocate of higher education throughout her life. She retired from Texas State Human Resources after more than 25 years. Frances was a lifelong member of Pleasant Retreat United Methodist Church, as well as the classic Bonanza Society. She and her late husband, Marshall, were licensed pilots. Together they enjoyed numerous trips around the country.

She married Marshall Hue Warnell in the winter of 1942 and celebrated their 50th wedding just months before his sudden passing.

She is survived by several cousins and a host of friends.

Honorary pallbearers will be Gerald Hollis, Michael Ball, James Campbell, Michael Wood, John Terry and Rupert Emison.

If desired, memorials may be made to The Hospice of East Texas Foundation, 1114 University Blvd., Tyler, TX 75701.
