“ I will always remember Frank and his wonderful Jesus T-shirts. Although I only knew him for a year or so, I will always cherish our spiritual talks and prayer time. Frank's love for the Lord was clearly evident. I will miss him dearly but rest in the knowledge that Frank is now in his eternal home.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Amy and all of Frank's family. I became acquainted with Frank and Amy about a year or more ago in Canton at their monthly sale. I became friends with them and looked forward to my monthly visit with them. I came to know that these were two good people who loved God and their fellow man. I am sorry for the loss of Frank but know that he is in Heaven and is free pain and suffering. I wish Amy God's blessing and comfort in this time of grief.

“ *Uncle Frank - what a dear uncle, I can remember growing up and he would always scare the nieces and nephews when we where at Grandma's and Grandpa's when were staying there. He would come in the middle of night and just scare us to pieces. He would think it was so funny.....He collected the neatest things! He loved Amy dearly and always loved his adorable Maltese Puppies he had at the time. Now, he can go be with Grandma and Grandpa, Uncle Paul and Uncle John and Aunt Nora and I hope he says Hi to Tommy for me. We will miss you.
