“ She gave us sooo many wonderful memories and I feel extremely Blessed that she was my Aunt! She gave our Family two awesome cousins who in turn, Blessed us with more equally awesome children! Uncle Frank chose well, a child of God, a Wife, a Mother, a Daughter-in-Law, an Aunt and a loving life companion! I will miss her, but take great comfort in knowing she's very much enjoying her new digs with Christ and hearing Angels sing!

“ I have way to many memories to share here. One that will stick with me forever is how she always was attentive to my growing family. When Sara was born she and Uncle Frank brought 2 small stuffed animals to Sara. She got me over to the side and said "Thank you for making me a great Aunt". My response was "You have always been a great Aunt". We had a good laugh and a big hug. She brought Amber two stuffed animals when she was born and she thanked me for making her a great Aunt again. We had another laugh and hug. It really is the little things you remember. I will miss her but look forward to a glorious reunion when the time comes.
