“ It still comes back to me, memories of school with Gary. I still remember us on bus 47, listening to Hollywood Undead together, talking about our favorite songs and band members.

“ I miss you brother. You were a good person with a lot of love to give. We felt it. I still do. You had an impact long before you passed, and I'm thankful I was lucky enough to get to know you. I used to know some of your family, and I hope they are still weathering the storm together. If you're reading this, I hope you find peace.
