

Glen Kilgour

August 20, 1925 - October 11, 2005

Glen Hayward Kilgour went home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Oct. 11, 2005 in Tyler, Texas. Glen was born August 20, 1925 in Maywood, Illinois to John W. and Laura E. Hayward Kilgour. Glen is survived by his sister, Olive K. Anders, who resides in Ashburn, Virginia. Mr. Kilgour graduated from Proviso High School in Maywood, Illinois in 1943 and enlisted in the V-12 program of the U. S. Navy where he served his country during World War II. At the conclusion of the war, Glen attended Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Illinois. Glen was a long time resident of the Chicago area where he managed a successful career in real estate. As a lifelong Methodist, he was a faithful member of Baker Memorial United Methodist Church in St. Charles, Illinois. He moved to Hot Springs, Arkansas in the early 1980's to care for his father and continued residing there until he moved to Tyler, Texas in April of 2003. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 A.M. Saturday, Oct. 15, 2005 at Baker Memorial United Methodist Church in St. Charles, Illinois under the direction of Rev. Rich French. Burial will be following the service at Oakwood Cemetery in Chicago. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memoriam to the Above and Beyond Campaign Fund, First Baptist Church, 301 W. Ferguson St., Tyler, TX 75702; First United Methodist Church, 1100 Central Ave., Hot Springs, AR 71901; or Baker Memorial United Methodist Church, 307 Cedar Ave., St. Charles, IL 60174.
