“ Shalimar was Gloria's mother's scent, and Gloria treasured wearing it in her honor. She was about 20 when we met, and had a couple formative years working and living together - though it seems like much longer

“ The very first time I met Mrs. Gloria she had made some of her great soup from her garden, there was a little bit of dirt left in it. BUT I was needing something different cause I was a little 'll. Which the next day I felt much better. I thanked her next time I spoke to her & told her about the dirt. Of course she apologized, we both laughed then she left.

“ My mind is still in disbelief, my heart is torn into pieces. I truly believe this precious lady was an angel sent from Heaven! Her work on earth is done and now she is in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ! The COUNTLESS times she has sat and prayed the most beautiful prayers with me, the hugs that you could feel to your soul, the smiles that would light any room! Her very selfless sacrifices she made to so many, even when her own life was in a storm. I love you Gloria so much! I can never thank you enough for ALL you did! To your family.... thank you ALL for sharing her with me! This cherished friendship is one that will NEVER be forgotten!! My prayers to you all in this huge loss!
