“ Dear Family of "Mother Love", i am so sorry for your loss. I just found out a few minutes ago as i do not get out often. It is such a horrible loss for me as well. I knew she was always praying for her community and it seemed like she was praying for you by name. I probably will never be able to go into that store again, it just will never be the same. I was hurting so bad for a while and then rejoiced that we have lost an angel, but she is surely in heaven with her God. She knew him well and you could tell by the light that radiated from her. I will never forget her, she was one beautiful lady, inside and out. Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ Minister Love, a true woman of God, who labored in spite of her illness. A woman who encourage me to be bold, bodacious in the Lord! as minister Love would say, And to know who you are in God, to stand on his word, not to stand down but to let the enemy know that he is defeated....be encouraged famiy. Gone but not forgotten love the King family.

“ Mrs. Love will truly be missed. There is not words to describe such a wonderful person as Mrs. Love. Her name said it all-love. Always ready with a word from the Lord. Always encouraging you in one way or another. Even during her most difficult times she was being an inspiration to those around her. Mrs. Love always proclaimed her faith in the Lord. I am sad to see my sister go home but I rest and find peace in knowing she is with the Lord. To the Love Family, lean and depend on God for he is able to see you through anything. ”
