“ I worked with Jean for several years at Wachovia Securities where she helped me during the challenging times as a financial advisor trainee. She was cheerful and caring and always had a positive attitude at work. Everyone enjoyed her company and she worked hard at managing all the work the around her. She was like an air traffic controller taking care of established advisors (the big jets) as well as those like myself just starting in the business (cessna). She took the time help all of us and never seem to complain but was there to listen to our trails and tribulations. We all enjoyed Jean artistic talents from her paintings to her crafts that she brought to the office to decorate during the holidays.

After Jean retired we kept in touch and went often went to lunch together. She would always have interest in my girls and the office and was so proud of her family in Tyler. Jean had a heart the size of Texas and had no ill will to others. I was blessed to have worked with her and to have her as a friend.

“ I have known Jean since 1972 working with her at Bache & Co., now known as Wells Fargo, in Honolulu Hawaii. She was a very quiet person and hard worker. She will be missed by all of her friends who have worked with her in the past years. She just love to paint.

“ I became an associate of Jean's in 1975, although I had made her acquaintance several years earlier. Jean and I weathered many corporate mergers and changes over the years and were still progressing in the same positive way all the way until Jean's retirement several years ago. I will always remember her kind demeanor and thoroughness in accomplishing any and all tasks while we were continually in the volatile mix of the financial securities markets over these many years. I am truly saddened her retirement years were so unjustly shortened.
