“ I have searched high and low for my favorite memory. Where is this picture of four girls at the beach on a beautiful summer day? It was Goldie, my daughter Tacey, myself and my lovely grandchild, Kylah. We had come to Galveston to visit Aunt Goldie for the first time. Aunt Goldie was joyous and full of good things for us. We had food, towels, blankets and love. No one was more generous than Goldie. She always took the time to think of others and what might be special to them. We will miss her dearly!
