“ First of all, I Love Grant and your Whole Family. Grant was such a carefree, fun loving and gentle giant that always had a big hug for me, no matter where we ran into each other. My heart hurts so much for you all, I can't even wrap my head around him being gone from this earth. Fly high sweet man and until we meet again, keep a close eye on all of us down here!

*Love,
Momma Janie*

“ I feel I missed something very unique and special by not know this young man. I do know my son and granddaughter knew him well and are very sad and feel a great loss. I met his mother, Roshell only once and as I shared with her today, I do know the love between a mother and son, but I can't even imagine the pain she is suffering now.

So now, Roshell, again, I offer my deepest sympathy, and my prayers for you, your family and all those who knew and loved your precious son. I pray God will bless you all, with peace and comfort, and that your memories of him will bring joy to your heart.

*This is God's promise, and our hope:
Rev 21:4 NIV 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.'*
