

Greg Hunt

June 19, 1954 - July 22, 2020

Jonathan Gregory Hunt passed away Wednesday, July 22, 2020 in Tyler. The family will have a time of visitation at 1pm at Flint Baptist Church on Saturday, July 25. A memorial service will follow at 2pm with Rev. Sam DeVille officiating. Greg was born June 19, 1954 in Tyler to Vernon Hunt and Joy Archer Hunt.

Greg was a member of Flint Baptist Church, where he served in the Worship and Tech Ministry. After graduating from Robert E. Lee High School, Greg and his wife Jana moved to Nacogdoches where he studied music at Stephen F. Austin. He started his first recording studio there before moving to Tyler to begin Rosewood Studios. Greg loved music, and was blessed to have it be his career as well as his passion. His session credits include Grammy and Dove award winning projects. He engineered multiple RIAA certified gold and multi-platinum albums.

Greg was proud of his studio and the people that he worked with but he was even prouder of his family and the love they have for each other. He is survived by his wife, Jana, his son Justin and his wife Allison, his son David and his wife Sasha. His brother Dwight and his wife Marilyn and their family. He was also the proud PawPaw to Sofia, Gavin and Elizabeth. Greg was preceded in death by his parents, Vernon and Joy Hunt.

Because we know so many are unable to join us at the service honoring Greg, we will be live streaming the service. <https://flintbc.online.church/>

“ Greg became a good friend when I began recording commercials for Brookshire's at Rosewood. Just a couple weeks ago, after passing by my house, he called out of the clear blue. Just the sound of his "Hey Brother!" absolutely made my day! We planned to meet for lunch sometime soon... hate we missed that...

Love you forever, Brother! You made such a difference for all of us!

“ I was so saddened to hear of Greg’s passing on Wednesday. My sincere and heartfelt sympathies to Jana, Justin, David and family. As a long time colleague and friend, I’d always looked forward to our conversations. Greg was always encouraging and generous on matters of work and audio production, and I always gleaned wisdom from our interactions. However, the trait I admired most was Greg’s amazing and uplifting sense of humor! I’m going to miss the laughter... I’ve caught myself quietly chuckling over the past couple of days as I’ve reflected on my old friend. I love you buddy!

“ Greg was a fun and friendly man who was full of life. It was my pleasure to have met him. On the occasions we shared, I saw a man full of love for his family and a deep devotion to his grandchildren. God took him too early but He left all his friends and family such beautiful memories that are everlasting. Prayers to all the family.
