

Gretchen G. Nash

January 6, 1938 - November 10, 2024

Services for Gretchen G. Nash, 86, of Bullard will be held on, Friday, December 6th at 2:00 at Christ Church Episcopal, 118 South Bois d'Arc Ave. Tyler, Texas. Rev. David Luckenbach officiating.

Gretchen passed away November 10, 2024, in Shreveport, LA. She was born on January 6, 1938, in Pierre, S. Dakota to George Parker Geistwhite and Ruth Swanson Geistwhite.

Gretchen was an active member of Christ Church Episcopal. She graduated from Natchitoches High School in 1956. Attended SMU, Northwestern State University and graduated from Clark College in Dubuque, IA with a degree in chemistry in 1980. She worked as a Lab Technician in various laboratories until she retired from AME Laboratory.

Gretchen married Bob Nash in 1958, they had three sons, Rob, Parker, and Todd. She was a boy mom that kept them active and happy while trying to always keep them in line. At Christ Church in Tyler, she was on the Alter Guild and volunteered in the Church gift shop enjoying every moment with other congregation members. Gretchen loved to entertain family and friends with her cooking and elaborate decorating. She loved the lake and was happiest on the boat dock or pontoon boat with family, especially with her grandchildren and their friends. Both Bob and Gretchen expressed the good fortune of having wonderful neighbors at the lake. She was very active in PEO and treasured her many friends.

Gretchen was preceded in death by her parents Parker and Ruth Geistwhite, her brother George Geistwhite and husband Bob Nash. She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-laws Rob Nash, Parker and Kasey Nash, and Todd and Missy Nash; grandchildren Rachel and her husband Dutch Lamons, Mackenzie and her husband Bryan Eisman, Katy Nash, and Robby Nash; great-grandchildren West Lamons, Ellie Eisman, Beau Eisman, and Tate Lamons.
