

Guadalupe N. Morales

December 25, 1947 - February 23, 2022

Guadalupe had more than nine lives and we never thought she would leave us. She survived so many health challenges over the years even when the odds were against her. And, yet through it all, she was our sassy matriarch who led us with dignity, courage, integrity, unabashed directness, humor, and so much love.

“Pe” as she was nicknamed by her physical therapist and “Pyro Pe”, as she was fondly called by her family because of her affinity to start fires, accomplished a lot while she was in this physical world. Her work ethic was established as a child when she began picking cotton at age six until age 18. Traveling across the country as a migrant worker and returning often after the start of the school year did not deter her from finishing high school. Indeed, it inspired her to walk onto the campus of Del Mar College and announce that she was there to go to school without the money to pay for college or an understanding of how to navigate the application process. Unsurprisingly inspiring, the college waived her application fee and gave her scholarship to nursing school. Upon graduation, she worked as a nurse for 25 years, before leaving to work alongside her husband at their business, that continues to grow 38+ years later.

While she was a wife to Luis for 55 years, a mother to four children, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, she was so much more. Pe adored Patrick who she considered her “homeboy” and never missed a Kansas City game. She enjoyed making arts and crafts, but loved giving away her creations to family, friends, and strangers even more. One of her proudest accomplishments was having all her children graduate from college.

Our mom was larger than life because nothing she did was “small.” Simplicity is beauty in and of itself was not her life’s mantra, but rather she subscribed to the notion that more is better – adding more flowers in a flower arrangement, she created and showering her grandchildren and great-grandbabies with more hugs and kisses than necessary because these signs of affections were missing from her childhood are illustrations of her mantra in practice.

She leaves her husband and family with a legacy of knowing unconditional love. We are the grateful beneficiaries of her boundless gifts of wisdom, affection, kindness, and are forever grateful to have had her in our lives. Pe your wings were ready to fly to a Heavenly new home, but our hearts are struggling to let you go. You leave us with a lifetime of cherished memories and the knowledge that one day we will see you again.

“ I'm so heart broken to find out that you have left us! I will always remember the very first time I meet you, when you gave me a job at Morales Tax Service, and welcome me into your family. I will never forget all the things you and your family done for me and the girls including the beautiful necklace and bracelets sets, food, flowers, and most important the encouraging words and love you shared with me! You were a decent, kind, caring and loving person. Not only was you fun to be around, but you was full of joy and excitement with many jokes that put a smile on my face every time I saw you! Thank you for giving me one of my nickname Vivi!! I love you, will miss you, and forever keep you in my heart!
As you, Mr. Morales, and your family have always said to me, "Vivi you're family", and I'm grateful and will always cherish those words!

To the Morales Family - I'm sorry to hear about the loss of our loved one! I'm here for you and will keep you all in my prayers!

I love you all!

“ To you, my beautiful grandmother....

This is the worst pain i've ever felt in my life. i love you more than life itself. You were a force to be reckoned with and never withheld you're voice. You're my inspiration my mother, my heart, my life. Im lost without you mi vida.

I know the woman you saw in me is in here. I'm doing everything i can to make sure i make you proud.

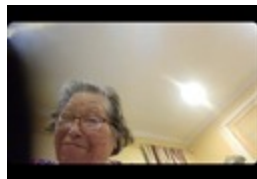

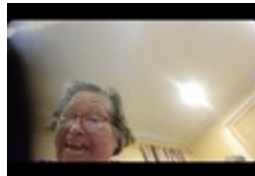

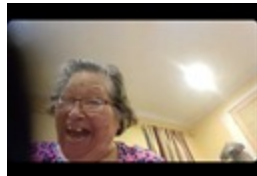

Watch over me my guardian angel. Until we meet again, i have all these precious memories that i will cherish until im reunited with you.

i miss your voice. i miss your contagious laugh, your smile, they way you made everyone feel your unconditional love.

the way you would tell me if i'm wrong even if it hurt. the way you would hold me when i cry, even as an adult i could come get in your bed & just talk cry hug it out then take the best naps of my life.

the way you loved my children, how you lit up everytime you saw them & how they ran to you with open arms.

I MISS YOU SO MUCH GRANNY life is not the same anymore. rest mama, you deserve to rest. your work is done. □
