“ I don't mind sharing that I am still in shock about this and cannot believe David is gone. Duane and I will miss him dearly, we had a lot of crazy, always fun and memorable times together in our younger years! In our more mature years we would reminisce those early days, but also share our love for family, life and Our Lord Jesus Christ! We are so grateful to have had David as our friend in this life and look forward to seeing our brother in Christ again, I pray he still has that smile and that laugh!
