

Harry Edgar Roye

June 26, 1923 - September 20, 2014

A Memorial Service for Harry Edgar Roye, 91, of Tyler, will be held on Wednesday, September 24, 2014 at 11:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Carl Mohn and Rev. Kevin Welborn officiating.

On September 20, 2014 Edgar went to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. When he entered Heaven, he heard the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Edgar was born in West Monroe, Louisiana on June 26, 1923 to Palmer Archer Roye and Mary Laura Tucker Roye. He graduated from high school in Rusk, Texas. Edgar served in the U.S. Navy on a submarine in the Pacific Theater during World War II.

Anyone in the family will tell you that there has never been a better husband, dad, Papaw, brother and uncle than Edgar.

Edgar served as a Bible teacher, quartet singer and deacon for over sixty years. He retired from Delta Drilling Co. after more than thirty years as an accountant and contract specialist.

Edgar was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Palmer Archer Roye, Jr., Henry Dunning Roye and Clarence Douglas "Buddy" Roye. He is survived by his wife Nelwyn of Tyler; daughters, Martha Mohn and husband David of Mt. Pleasant, Sharon Wyatt and husband Danny of Whitehouse; son,

“ Dear Nell and Family,

I am so sorry to learn of your loss of Edgar. However, we know where he is, and he's probably singing with J. B. We have loved you and your family for many years. I moved to McKinney in 2006, after J. B. passed away in 2005. I miss Tyler and don't get to come often as it's a pretty long drive.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

*Love,
Dorothy Cooper*
