

Homer H. "Woody" Woodall

March 1, 1927 - August 7, 2022

Homer H. "Woody" Woodall, Jr. was born March 1, 1927, in Searcy, Arkansas to Homer and Muzette Woodall. He grew up in Little Rock, Arkansas then served in the Army in World War II and again in the Korean Conflict. He felt blessed to play the sport he loved the most; baseball, at Oklahoma A&M in Stillwater, Oklahoma now called Oklahoma State University. After his education he joined Amoco Oil Company as a petroleum engineer where he worked for over 30 years before retiring to Emerald Bay. During his retirement he enjoyed golf, good friends, and traveling.

Woody was 95 years old when he died on August 7, 2022 and was preceded in death by his parents and 3 sisters. He is survived by his wife, Loretta Woodall, three stepdaughters and sons in law; Lisa and Jim White, Helen and Brad Hoeffner, and Julie and John Taylor, along with 8 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews. Woody will be remembered as a man with a kind, humble spirit, and a true gentleman.

A private family service will be held. If desired, memorials may be made to Emerald Bay Community Church, 160 LaSalle Drive, Bullard, TX 75757 (www.emeraldbaychurch.org) or Hospice of East Texas, 4111 University Blvd, Tyler, Tx 75701 (www.hospiceofeasttexas.org).

Tribute Wall

DD

“Woody was a great man friend and neighbor. I knew woody since he moved to emerald bay. He was always a joy to be around. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. He will be missed. We always enjoyed seeing each other. Love u woody. RIP. Doug dotson

doug dotson - August 12, 2022 at 03:03 PM

GT

“One of my earliest memories of Uncle Bubbie was him singing a Dean Martin song, “Everybody loves Somebody “. I can still hear him singing. He has such a beautiful voice. Now he is singing praises in heaven. My Mom adored her brother. We all loved you Uncle Bubbie. Giff

Gifford Terry - August 11, 2022 at 05:51 AM