

Howard Jack Holliday

June 23, 1943 - August 30, 2019

Howard Jack Holliday passed away peacefully in his sleep, at the age of 76, on August 30, 2019. He was born on June 23, 1943 in Tyler. He met and married his wife, Marsha Ray Hinds of Tyler, in 1962. They were married nearly 57 years and she was the love of his life. They loved to travel together, especially in Italy, and find new destinations in Europe to begin adventures that would typically include a cross-Atlantic cruise, their favorite way to travel.

Jack, or “Jackie”, as he was known by many, was the owner and president of Holliday Sheet Metal, Co., which was opened in 1948 by his father H. C. Holliday. This was Jack’s second career. He earned Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees from the University of Texas at Austin, and a PhD in English from Texas Christian University. Prior to moving back to Tyler in 1985, he lived in McAllen with his family and taught at Pan American University in Edinburgh, for 15 years, where he was a tenured professor and head of the English Department. He was known to his students and faculty friends as “Doc” Holliday.

Jack had a passion for reading, especially poetry and anything by D.H. Lawrence, and loved to travel with his wife, exploring other countries and their art and cuisine. He loved the outdoors, especially camping at Big Bend National Park, and playing golf, managing two aces in his life. Mostly, he had a passion for people, especially his family. He was generous with his money, time, and talents to so many that were in need and was an inspiration to many.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Hubert and Sarah Holliday; and his brother, Phil Holliday. He is survived by his loving wife, Marsha Holliday; son, Sean Holliday and wife Stacey of Tyler; daughter, Alison McGinnis and husband Michael of Whitehouse; sister, Patricia Mankin and husband Johnny of Waco; sister, Sally Evans of Austin; brother, Duke Holliday and wife Jenny of Phoenix, AZ, sister-in-law, Gay Holliday of Whitehouse; and grandchildren, Caitlin Holliday, Taylor Holliday, Joe Townend, Hannah McGinnis, and Abby McGinnis; 11 nieces and nephews, and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Jack was a member of Christ Episcopal Church, where a memorial service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, September 13. All are welcome. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to PATH, 402 W. Front St., Tyler, TX 75702 .

“ My sweet boss of 18 1/2 years. You have no idea what an empty spot you have left in my heart. I will never forget you. You were the best boss and friend anyone could ever ask for. Always there to help me or to do anything I would ask of you. You were a kind and gentle man. I will miss my golf buddy and my lunch partner. I'm so happy we shared so many laughs and happy times together. We would tell so many funny stories and they would most always make us laugh to the point of tears rolling down our faces. I'm going to miss those weeks so much but most of all I'm going to miss you. Until we meet again RIP my BFF.

Prayers for the family and friends, I never knew Jack but I attended high school with his son, Sean. Many fun memories from then while working on our school plays. Jack must have been an awesome person to raise kids like Sean.
